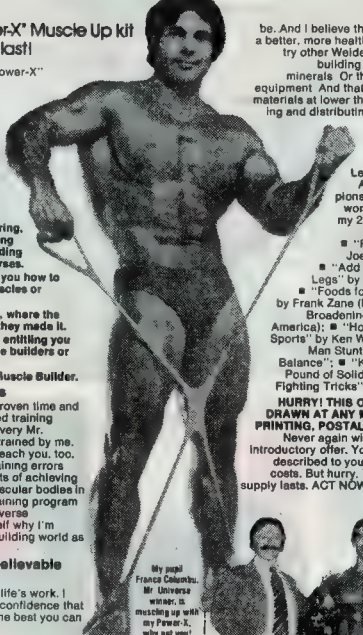
How can I make you this unbelievable shape-up offer?

Building stronger, fitter bodies is my life's work. I earn my living giving people the self-confidence that only comes from looking and being the best you can be. And I believe that once I put you on that road to a better, more healthy, vigorous body you'll want to try other Weider products, too. Like my muscle building food supplements, vitamins and minerals. Or the world famous Weider training equipment. And that's why I'm sending you all these materials at lower than my raw manufacturing, printing and distributing costs. At not one penny profit.



My pupil Franco Columbu, Mr. Universe winner, is muscling up with my Power-X. why not you!

Use these SECRETS of the world's most famous muscle stars.

Let me introduce you to all the Mr. America and Mr. Universe champions I have trained. And in their own words, they'll reveal ■ "How I Built my 22½" Muscular Arms" by Arnold Schwarzenegger (Mr. Olympia); ■ "Power Training for Sprinters" by Joe Weider, Trainer of Champions; ■ "Add Inches of Muscle Power to Your Legs" by Franco Columbu (Mr. Olympia); ■ "Foods for Gaining Weight and Strength" by Frank Zane (Mr. Universe); ■ "My Shoulder-Broadening Course" by Steve Reeves (Mr. America); ■ "How to Build Speed and Power for Sports" by Ken Waller (Mr. Universe); ■ "Strong Man Stunts Made Easy"; ■ "How to Hand Balance"; ■ "Kung Fu and Karate"; ■ "Gain a Pound of Solid Muscle a Day"; ■ "12 Oriental Fighting Tricks"; plus much, much, much more!

"I know why Ken likes to shoot Daisy B-B guns with me. He's a better shot than I am! And I like shooting with him simply because it gives us an opportunity to spend some time together.

Sometimes we set up targets down in the basement. Or else we'll get out in the backyard by ourselves plinking away, and talking. I've found it's a terrific way for a father and son to get to know each other better.

At the same time, I think it's helping Ken develop a sense of responsibility, as well as confidence in himself through his own achievements. And that's important at any age."

THE MAKING OF A HERO!

c/o MARVEL COMICS GROUP, 575 MADISON AVE. N.Y.C. 10022

WHO IS THE HUMAN FLY

A tentative explanation by BILL MANTLO

The Human Fly is me. He's also you and millions of other people you've encountered every day of your life since the day you were born. The Human Fly is a concept, an idea. The truly wondrous thing about him, though, is that he's real! We said that on the cover, we said it on the title-page, and, folks, we meant it!

You may have read of his exploits, featured in newspapers and on TV from Montreal, Canada to Milano, Italy. You may have heard, with a sense of awe and wonderment, of a young Canadian who was hoisted to the top of a DC-8 jet aircraft which proceeded to take off on a 200-MPH flight over the burning Mojave Desert...with the Human Fly still standing up top!!

You may have heard and dismissed it as impossible—but it happened, pilgrims! The Human Fly is real!

It began some six years ago in a head-on car crash on a lonely road near Ashville, North Carolina. A young man driving the first car was seriously injured. His wife and children were killed instantly and he, on being rushed to a hospital, hung for days between life and death...fighting inwardly to survive, summoning all his will in a fierce desire to live. Two weeks later this man, broken in body, was taken off the critical list. It was said that he would remain a cripple for the rest of his life.

In the months and years to come, this young man underwent countless operations, financed by the father of the driver of the second car. These operations replaced a substantial amount of his skeletal frame with steel, seeking to supplant scientifically what the body itself was no longer capable of recreating. Doctors still remained skeptical of his chances of ever walking again, though he had regained some power of movement. For this young man, such an existence was a living hell. It was more than he could accept...and he determined to prove his doctors wrong—or die trying.

The determination grew. He would strain to rise, to move from his bed. So aggressive did his actions become that doctors were forced to sedate or strap him down out of fear that he would harm himself. Realizing that this was proving counterproductive, he calmed down, lulling his doctors into a sense of security that he had at last accepted his irreversible condition....

...while every night, under cover of darkness, the victim of an accident that would have left most others dead or paralyzed for life began to secretly exercise his unresponsive body...until it became responsive, until it became his body once again...and perhaps something more than it had been before.

Four years later, the man sat up in bed, then stood, then walked...to the amazement of his doctors who had long since given him up for lost.

He was released from the hospital, carrying with him a body partially rebuilt...and the memories of walking the hospital corridors unseen at night and witnessing, first hand, the hopelessness of others like him. Veterans, missing limbs and maimed from Vietnam. Workers, torn in industrial accidents. Those born to disability and all separated from the mainstream of life. He had fought against that separation and won. They had lost, because the motivation was not there and was not being supplied by the world without.

It was then that this victim determined to supply the motivation, the hope to the disabled of the world that they could rise above their disabilities, they could triumph over infirmity, they could succeed...for, hadn't he?

He knew the world, knew that if you wanted to reach people with a message you had to do it flamboyantly, colorfully. He remembered tales of the daredevils of the Depression Era, the 1930's when flagpole-sitting or a walk up the side of a skyscraper or the exploits of a super escape-artist would excite the imagination of millions...give hope to those without hope... raise them above the crushing problems of everyday life for one brief shining moment so that they would see, for themselves, that anything is possible if you just dare to try! He knew that he had been spared a living death for just that purpose.

The Human Fly was born!

The stunts began. He walked atop high-flying jets going at speeds man had never before dared unprotected. He spoke of fighting man-eating sharks, of death-defying races. He kept his identity secret because he wanted to be identified as 'everyman'...not as a lone, glory-seeking, self-serving individual. Money raised by his stunts was all turned back into charity, into research so that cures might be found for disabled people the world over.

His stunts were spectacular, but so was the coverage in papers all over this continent and Europe. His analysis had been correct. Color demanded attention—and got it! Drama hooked the media and, though they concerned themselves with the spectacle, the flamboyance...the message, the reason behind the Fly's exploits came through.

And people reading of him from hospital beds, or wheelchairs, or in Braille—or even normal people suffering a sense of helplessness in a world grown too big, too impersonal for them—began to sit up, to open their eyes, to take notice...to find hope.

He became the "space-age Daredevil", the living bionic man, compared to Captain America or Spider-Man in media presentations throughout the world.

"I've never been terrified or scared in my life," said the Human Fly. "And I'm not fighting to walk to the bank with millions of dollars for myself. I'd like to make millions for the kids!"

Comics, as we all know them, have been pressing that kind of glorious altruism for decades, and no one but wide-eyed kids or adults who regretted leaving childhood goals in the face of the harsher realities of life would agree with them. Until the Human Fly.

"I've got 50,000,000 kids out there depending on me. I've got a lot of people to support...youngsters in hospitals, struggling against cancer, polio, cerebral palsy or whatever. I've got a lot of people to support.

"And this is my way of doing it!"

And we couldn't agree with the Fly more.

Brian Eastman

NOT FOR THE SUPER

BE BETTER THAN THE BEST. BE DYNAMIC!

MOST MEN NEVER REALIZE THEIR POTENTIAL FOR MUSCULARITY. Why? Probably because they've never come across or taken advantage of a training program quite like the one we offer here at UNIVERSAL BODYBUILDING. Our course has the ULTIMATE MASTERPLAN for TOTAL BODY DEVELOPMENT!

Very few men are satisfied with the way they look at present. They know themselves that they wouldn't mind having a REALLY MASCULINE BODY — one that will "turn on" the girls and make the guys envious.

WITH UNIVERSAL METHODS, YOU CAN BREAK OUT OF YOUR "OLD" SELF, AND TRANSFORM YOUR BODY INTO AN ATTENTION-GETTER!!! WE GUARANTEE TO IMPROVE YOUR BODY FAR BEYOND WHAT YOU'VE EVER BELIEVED POSSIBLE! We have perfected bodybuilding training techniques to the extreme, so that we can offer you the fastest gains possible. If you're thin and underweight, you'll be astonished at how quickly muscles appear. If you're overweight, we can help you to trim down the fat and replace it with rock-hard muscle. We'll tone up your abdominal area, and show you how to obtain a well-defined and impressive waist.

Add 2 or 3 inches to your arms, 4 or 5 inches to your chest — your rewards will be in direct proportion to your effort and accomplishments — nobody sets a limit to your success.

In the time it takes to complete this 12 lesson course, we can guarantee you a muscular foundation fantastic enough to be developed to your fullest potential!!! You can go far beyond mere "improvement" with the Advanced Training Techniques included in this course. We can give you the firm, rippling, muscular body of a physique star!!! Send in for our FREE COLORFUL BROCHURES TODAY (fantastic information about our course — loaded with unbelievable photographs) You won't regret it!!!

INSTANTLY — YOUR MUSCLES WILL BEGIN TO GROW!

BE GREAT - BE SOMEBODY SPECIAL!

- ☐ ARMS — Develop big, powerful arms — the kind girls love to be held in! Command respect from everyone you meet!
- ☐ CHEST — Is your chest sunken and unimpressive? No more! It's easy to build a massive chest. You can measure 45, 47, or even 50 inches!
- ☐ BACK — Develop your upper back, and get that outstanding "V-shape!" Often within one week you'll be able to see that wedge formation begin to take shape — it's a real attention-getter!
- ☐ SHOULDERS — Get rid of those puny shoulders! Instead, fill your shirts with bulging muscles!
- ☐ LEGS — Put some muscle on those spindly legs! Muscular legs will give you extra power like you've never dreamed possible!
- ☐ ABDOMEN — Trim and harden that's the way your abs should look. Get rid of your pot-belly, improve your digestion, and get that washboard waist—all when you develop those abdominal muscles!

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

Hi, gang! Before we get to the really heavy stuff, I just wanna say thanks to Gregg Marcus of the welcoming committee at the University of Alabama for arriving early enough at the hotel, after my lecture, to get me to the airport in time for the early flight back to New York. It was above and beyond the call of duty, Gregg, and thou mayest consider thyself summarily no-prized! Incidentally, for those of you who've never been to the U. of Alabama, I've got to tell you that the campus, and the tiny but terrific town of Tuscaloosa are really something else! Y'know, writing, editing, and publishing are great—but I think I enjoy visiting various colleges around the country more than anything else. I can't begin to describe the excitement of meeting Marvelites on campuses all over America (Canada and Mexico included) and being turned on by their awareness and enthusiasm! And speaking of enthusiasm, have I told you how thrilled I am to be able to announce that one of comicdom's greatest talents has rejoined the Bullpen after, lo, these many years? Yep, none other than the almost-legendary Carmine Infantino, one of the acknowledged giants in the world of comics! Carmine Infantino, whose inspired artwork over the years has set the style for so many others who followed in his stead; whose contributions to the comic book industry are too numerous to mention in this one column; and whose extraordinary genius will knock your eyes out in SPIDER-WOMAN #1, on sale in July—as well as in issue #2 of THE HUMAN FLY, plus various issues of DAREDEVIL, NOVA, and other Marvel masterworks. Welcome aboard, old friend—the best is just ahead! But before I turn you loose, there's one other earth-shattering announcement I've been bustin' to make! Are you ready for this? Starting Monday, June 6th, HOWARD THE DUCK will burst forth like a meteor from the comic pages of newspapers from coast to coast! If he doesn't appear in your own town, write to the feature editor of your local newspaper and demand that such cultural deprivation be immediately rectified! First SPIDER-MAN—presently appearing in more than 300 lucky papers—and now, HOWARD THE DUCK! Who says this isn't the Marvel Age of Magnificent Munificence?!! So, till the Silver Surfer gets a crew-cut, be good to each other. And, if you can spare a minute or two, take a turtle to tea!

Excelsior!

Stan

ITEM! When comic book art aficionados get together, someone sooner or later points out the strong similarity between the visual techniques of comics and those of the movies. You'd certainly get no arguments from these quarters, as just about every sturdy soul in the Bullpen is a dyed-in-the-wool movie buff. Maybe that's why 1977 is shaping up as the year when merry Marvel and the wild world of the movies really come together. In addition to such continuing tie-in titles as STAR WARS, we're about to launch a number of bonus-size, one-issue film adaptations, timed to appear at the same time as the movies which they cover. The first one to come your way is based on American-International's THE ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU starring Burt Lancaster, Michael York, Richard Basehart, and Barbara Carrera. This eerie classic is from the book by H.G. Wells about an island empire populated by the half human beings Dr. Moreau creates from wild animals. These Humanimals™ may well be the most sinister sensations to hit screen or comics pages since the movies (and Marvel) introduced everyone to the wonders of a certain world of talking apes. Certainly writer DOUG MOENCH and artist LARRY HAMA (Remember his standout stint as penciler on IRON FIST back in the old MARVEL PREMIERE days?) have given it one of their best jobs, the kind that has the whole Bullpen buzzing. But don't take our word for it; pick it up and see for yourself!

ITEM! As we said, ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU is only the beginning. Soon to follow will be our version of THE DEEP, the film of JAWS author Peter Benchley. A novel of sharks (A whole school, not just one!), deep sea treasure, and a giant eel. After that, we'll be tackling CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF A THIRD KIND, the movie about UFOs that we think is going to hit the seventies with the same kind of impact 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY struck the sixties. And these are just the projects we can tell you about. There are some others in the works too secret to mention for the moment, like the special photo-mag that has our whole black and white department huddling together mysteriously like spies in an IAN FLEMING book or—oops! Forget we said that! Just remember to watch this space for further developments.

ITEM! Word from the West Coast has it that JACK "King" KIRBY is hard at work developing an exciting new feature. No details yet from California's most constant innovator, but by this time next month, we hope to have the full scoop for you. Meanwhile, Mister Machine, the decidedly different super-hero Jack's introduced in his monthly 2001 book, has already started garnering rave reactions, with more than a few suggesting that this mechanical man with soul be given a book of his own. That's a matter better decided in the future, but you can still catch this hero-in-the-making if you move quickly right now.

ITEM! The parade of summer annuals is now moving into high gear, with the INVADERS, SPIDER MAN, and HOWARD THE DUCK annuals all set for appearances this month, and THOR, THE ETERNALS, TARZAN, and JOHN CARTER, WARLORD OF MARS on tap for July. In addition to what we feel is some extra-special material designed for the main body of the books (such as Howard meeting the Man-Thing, and Thor teaming with the Guardians of the Galaxy), we'd like to call your attention to the short back up features which are going into many of the annuals. These were designed to give our overworked regulars a few pages of breathing space, and, more importantly, to give some talented new writers, pencilers, and inkers a chance to display their work before the most discerning critics of all... you, our readers. Some of the contributors to these off beat short adventures you may be slightly familiar with; many, however, will be strangers, exhibiting their work for the first time, some may become comics stars of tomorrow. Look at them carefully, let us know what you think. We're depending on you

ITEM! With all the items we've already mentioned, you wouldn't think we'd have anything else special that we can lay on you this month, but we can't close without mentioning that this is the month that the premiere issue of THE HUMAN FLY, the real-life death defier, hits the newsstands, and a new CONAN TREASURY EDITION comes your way, made up mostly of material that has never been seen in color comics and featuring the artistry of JOHN BUSCEMA, BARRY SMITH, NEAL ADAMS and GIL KANE, perfectly packaged by editor/writer ROY THOMAS. Let's face it, gang, like June, Marvel is busting out all over!
